

What a GREAT First Week!

I am so excited by what I have already seen from your children in just this first week of school! Our class has been making friends, taking risks, collaborating, helping each other, and showing a lot of compassion and kindness.

It has been a busy week learning routines and easing back into the school year, and I am sure your children are tired. They deserve a relaxing weekend to recharge their batteries and enjoy some family time. Hopefully you can join them! ☺

When we return to school on Tuesday, please remind your child that we will be having a gathering (assembly) that morning.

Sincerely,
Teresa Lewers

BACK TO SCHOOL

Back to School Night will be held September 6th starting at 6:00pm.

POPCORN FRIDAY:

Students have the opportunity on the first Friday of each month to buy a bag of popcorn during lunch time. Bags are $1 and all proceeds go to support SECO funded activities at Sato.

Specials Calendar:

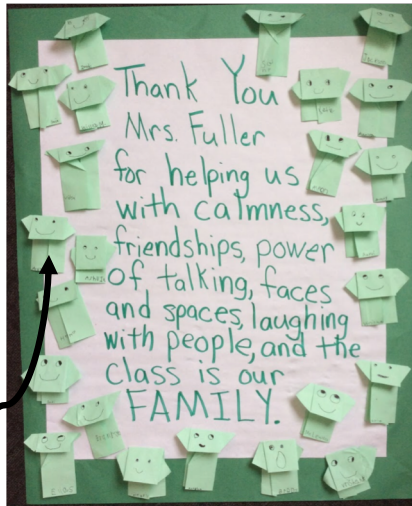

Today we made our September Specials calendar. The calendar also included an original piece of artwork by your child. Help your child find a place to hang the calendar so they, and you, can refer to it.

Besides our Specials schedule, it also has important events listed, like birthdays, Back to School Night, SECO Movie Night, Popcorn Friday, Picture, and the like.

The Week in (some) Pictures

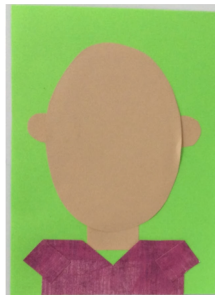

Practicing routines in Math Workshop

Five fold origami Yoda (from Tom Angelberger's books)

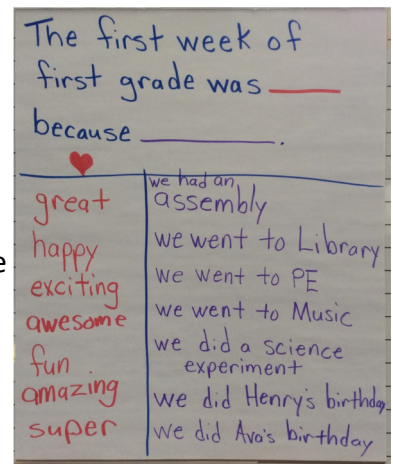

Our introduction to Mrs. Fuller, our Student Success Coach. We learned A LOT in just one session!

Shared writing: thank you letter to Mrs. Fuller.

We started our first grade self-portraits

Writing about our first week in first grade (this was the anchor chart we made together)

PLEASE NOTE:

Next Wednesday, 9/5 is an Early Release Day.

Students at Sato will be dismissed at 1:35 pm.

Our Wednesday early release schedule is to facilitate teacher collaboration time. For more information on teacher collaboration time, click here.
